COME TO THE MEETING!

LETTER OF CONGRATULATION

The Times received a letter from R. E. Willis, a former Union man, congratulating us on the service we have put on. We quote from his letter:

"I understand you have the Associated Press service now and I wish to see. Hope the people of Union and vicinity will stick by you, help you double the circulation. With this service you can give them as good a paper as it is possible to get anywhere and incidentally a paper has to be all right in every respect before the Associated Press will take them on.

I am back with the A. P. now—was with them several months in Lynchburg, and am back home now with the Greenville News."

The above letter is highly appreciated by The Times. Mr. Willis is an expert operator and knows what it means to have a service such as we are giving. It will be remembered that Mr. Willis married Miss Agnes Love of this city and was a resident of this place for some time.

KELTON

Mrs. R. B. Bailey, who underwent a very serious operation at Steedly's hospital, is improving nicely. She has many friends who are wishing her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. W. N. Garner, who has been sick so long, is growing worse every day. This is sad news to her many friends for she is loved by all who know her.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Inman spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Tony Proctor, of Wilkinsville.

Misses Susie Hames and Marie Austin from Lockhart, Misses Almond and Brynton Erword and Marien Smith from Hickory Grove spent Sunday with Miss Madge Farr.

Miss Christine Inman and Otis Garner spent Sunday with Miss Mildred Inman.

Whitney Farr and This writer had the pleasure of attending a picnic given at the home of Miss Ruth Inman, of Wilkinsville, Saturday and on my, correspondents, you should have been there! They sure did have a fine dinner, and everyone seemed to enjoy the occasion.

I wonder how many of the correspondents are going on the picnic? I am sorry I cannot be with you. Hope you all have a nice time and you must remember me at the dinner occasion.

Sunshine.

KELTON

The protracted meeting closed at Flat Rock Sunday, with two new members.

Misses Florene and Kate Adams, of Adamsburg, spent Wednesday with Miss Mildred Adams.

"THE FATHER OF THE MAN"

THIS is "Jimmy," towheaded, with an eye that meets yours unswervingly and as winsome a laddie as ever knelt for bedtime prayers. Jimmy is one of more than 25,000 homeless or poor children yearly cared for by the Salvation Army in the United States, and he lives in one of the Army's many orphanages. "Send me a papa and mamma!" is the burden of "Jimmy's" nightly pleas. "And—God bless the Salvation Army!" he almost invariably adds. The Salvation lassies find fully as much enjoyment in caring for "Jimmy" and his thousands of brothers and sisters as they did in frying doughnuts for doughboys and marines in France. If the child is father to the man, they argue, the father must have a good bringing up. And so the chain of fifty Salvation Army orphanages, day nurseries and children's hospitals that stretch from coast to coast.

Mr. Jim Foster, of Spartanburg, spent a few days last week with his sister Mrs. Anna Gault.

Miss Lillian Morris, of Wilkinsville, spent the week-end with Miss Era Eaves.

Smith Adams spent Friday night with his cousin, Tommie Adams. Mrs. Claude Comer and children spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Lester Gault.

William Ivey and sisters, Misses Carrie and Vassie Ivey, of Wilkinsville, spent the week-end at the home of this writer.

Jim Foster, Mrs. Anna Gault, Johnnie James, Misses Lillie, Ruby and Hilda James, Mittie Adams and this writer attended a picnic at Owen's Ford bridge in Cherokee county Saturday and certainly had a fine time. They had plenty of dinner and plenty left. Silver Bell and Sunshine were there. Wish some more of your writers could have been with us. Moxy, where were you?

Mrs. Russell Belue, of Bonham, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gault.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Wood, Jr., spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eaves.

Messrs. Odell Morris and Sam T. Gault spent the week-end with friends on this route.

Messrs. Smith, Tommie and Will Adams and Ray Garner attended the picnic at Owen's Ford Saturday.

Mrs. Anna Gault, Johnnie, Ruby, Roy and Hilda James and Mr. Jim Foster took a flying trip to Gaffney and Spartanburg Sunday and visited relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Comer and children spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Davis Garner.

Miss Irene Lawson, of Adamsburg, spent the week-end with Miss Lois Gault.

Mrs. Conway Garner and little daughter, of Spartanburg, are visiting Mrs. Anna Gault.

Brown Eyes.
